

Emory King Week 2023

January 15

MLK Sunday worship service and lunch with the Rev. Tolton Pace
11:00 a.m. | Cannon Chapel

January 16

Emory's "Day On" of community service
11:00 a.m. | Multiple locations

January 16

Religious observance in honor of MLK Day
11:00 a.m. | Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital Chapel

January 16

Resources for Reading & Reflection: Speeches, Books, Film
All Day | Emory University Hospital Midtown Cafeteria

January 17

"I, Too": A documentary film from the mind of Carol Anderson; discussion facilitated by Rose Scott of WABE
5:00 p.m. | Harland Cinema

January 17

"The Union Difference: A Dialogue on Economic Justice" with the Emory Conversation Project and Volunteer Emory
6:00 p.m. | Emory Student Center, Multipurpose Space N102

January 17

Oxford College celebration of the life of Martin Luther King Jr. with keynote speaker Marla Frederick
7:30 p.m. | Oxford College, Old Church

January 17

Tea and Reflection with Chaplains
1:45 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. | Emory Johns Creek Hospital

January 18

Lecture and book signing: "Call My Lawyer: Fred Gray and Civil Rights Lawyering in the African American Freedom Struggle" with Fred Gray
4:00 p.m. | Glenn Auditorium

January 19

MLK Community Service Awards 2023 with keynote speaker Rashard Johnson

4:00 p.m. | Online

January 19

2023 MLK Day Lecture with keynote speaker Janai Nelson of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund

6:00 p.m. | School of Law, Tull Auditorium

January 26

Morehouse College King Collection Lecture and Conversation: "Now is the Time: Perspectives on the Continuing Struggle for Justice and Peace" with Bakari T. Sellers, Andrea Young, and David Wall Rice

5:30 p.m. | Morehouse College, Ray Charles Performing Arts Center

January 30

Viewing of Morehouse College King Collection documents

5:30 p.m. | Atlanta University Center, Woodruff Library